25. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, called to request a briefing on [REDACTED]. He also indicated that Senator Barry M. Goldwater (R., Ariz.) would want a briefing and suggested that we call him and make such an offer. [REDACTED] will follow-up on this.

26. [REDACTED] LIAISON Dick White, Administrative Assistant for Representative Dale Milford (D., Texas), called to give me the coordinates on the location on the eight World War II aircraft located in Greenland. The coordinates were: 65 degrees, 20 minutes North, 40 degrees West; the location is approximately 15 miles inland from the coast, at the altitude of 3,000 to 4,000 feet.

27. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Hans Binnendijk, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called to request that we add to the briefing scheduled on Turkey the political consequences which might follow from a continuation of the embargo.

28. [REDACTED] EMPLOYMENT Received a call from Kay Ross, in the office of Representative G. V. Montgomery (D., Miss.). She said that the Congressman wanted to write a letter of recommendation for a constituent who has applied for a position with the Agency and wanted to know to whose attention the letter should be sent. I told her that she could send it to [REDACTED] and we would be sure it is forwarded to the proper personnel people. She thanked me for this information.

29. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Tom Latimer, Staff Director, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, to advise him of the inquiry from Seymour Shwiler, House Armed Services Committee staff, concerning [REDACTED]. In response to my query, Latimer said he had no authority to deal directly with professional staff members on classified material provided to the House Select Committee. I told him we were forever hopeful that the Committee would exercise exclusive jurisdiction over operational activities but in this instance, this had occurred a number of years ago when oversight was performed by the House Armed Services Committee, and I would attempt to handle this discreetly with the professional staff of the Armed Services Committee, John Ford or Bill Hogan.
